

FEES FOR DAY AND BOARDING STUDENTS

The following scale of Tuition and Boarding fees and charges comes into effect from 1st January 2017. Fees are set incorporating the costs of all items known to be an integral part of the curriculum and allowing for anticipated State and Australian Government Grants. Where applicable, GST is included in the stated fee.

The College reserves the right to alter these fees and charges during the year.

Registration Fee

A non-refundable fee of $125 is payable upon submission of an Application for Admission form.

Entrance Fee

A non-refundable fee of $2,751 is payable on receipt of an offer of a place at the College. This ensures the student's place and completes his enrolment. This fee is donated to the Aquinas College Foundation Inc - Endowment Fund.

Annual Fees and Charges

An annual account for these charges is forwarded to families at the beginning of the school year, together with a payment option selection form which must be returned to the College by the specified date.

Bus Passes and Tickets

The following can be purchased at the Online Store:
A Term Pass, costing $115 per term for Terms 1, 2 and 3 and $95 for Term 4.

Book of 20 Tickets (one ticket each way), costing $60 per book.

The Term Pass or book of tickets can be collected from the School Office upon presentation of a printed Online Payment Receipt.

Parent Council Levy

A levy of $63 per annum, per family, is added to the accounts.

Brother Redmond Memorial Building Fund (Tax Deductible)

The Building Fund enables parents to make a direct contribution to the refurbishment and maintenance of College capital assets. Families are encouraged to voluntarily donate $500 per year, per family while their son/s attend the College.

Edmund Rice Foundation Australia

Edmund Rice Foundation was established to support the ongoing development projects of the Oceania Province of the Christian Brothers. Each School within the Edmund Rice network of Australia has committed to supporting the Christian Brothers as they provide education, health and community development projects to those in need across Australia and in Africa, East Timor, Papua New Guinea and the Philippines.

The Foundation is a non-government organisation accredited and monitored by the Australian Government.

In 2017, the College will contribute $90 per student, from fee income from parents, to this cause.

Payment Options

The College offers three payment options for annual accounts. All are Direct Debit only. Direct debits may be made using cheque, savings or credit card accounts.

Option One

Payment in full within 21 days of issue of the account.

Option Two

Three equal payments, with the first due within 21 days of issue of the account, the second payable before 1st June 2017 and the third payable before 1st September 2017.

Option Three

Nine monthly instalments due the first of each month, commencing 1st March 2017.

Withdrawal of a Student

Notice of withdrawal of a student must be given in writing to the Headmaster. Verbal notification or notification to a staff member other than the Headmaster, is not considered due notice.

Day Students

A minimum of a full term's notice, in writing to the Headmaster is required. In lieu of such notice, one third of the current annual tuition fee will be charged.

Boarding Students

Boarding students are expected to remain as boarders for the full year and as such, boarding fees are payable for the full year, even if a boy is withdrawn before completing the year. There will be no refunds for Year 12 boarders withdrawing in Term 4.

In the event of the intended withdrawal of a student at the end of a calendar year, a minimum of one term's notice, in writing to the Headmaster is required. In lieu of such notice, half of the subsequent year's annual boarding fee will be payable.

Remission of boarding fees for absences due to illness or for any other reason will only be granted in exceptional circumstances and at the sole discretion of the Headmaster.

Change of Status from Boarding to Day Student

This is considered a new enrolment and must have the approval of the Headmaster. The same conditions of notice and fees payable as described above apply to boarders withdrawn in this manner.

Outstanding Fees

Charge interest on overdue accounts.

Take legal action for the recovery of fees not paid.

Refuse re-enrolment if fees are overdue.

Families experiencing difficulties in meeting fee payments are urged to contact the Dean of Business and Finance to discuss alternative arrangements for payment.

Insurance

The College has in place a limited (excludes all Medicare services including the Medicare Gap) personal accident and disability insurance policy to cover all students. Copies of the insurance policy are available from the Director of Finance.

Parents are advised to check their Health and General Insurance policies to ensure adequate medical, personal property and liability insurance cover. The College does not accept responsibility for any claim to property loss or damage incurred by students or parents.
